HOW RISKY IS IT?

When you invest in a fund, the value of your investment can go down as well as up. EdgePoint has rated this Fund's risk as medium. For a description of specific risks, see the Fund's simplified prospectus.

ARE THERE ANY GUARANTEES?

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the money you invest.

HOW HAS THE FUND PERFORMED?

This section tells you how the Fund has performed since its inception. Returns are after fund expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the Fund's returns. It's important to note that this doesn't tell you how the Fund will perform in the future.

Average return

A person who invested $1,000 in the Fund at inception would have $1,909 as of May 31, 2011. This is equal to an annual compounded return of approximately 29.1%.

Year-by-year returns

This chart shows the Fund's annual performance for each of the years shown. The Fund hasn't dropped in value for the past two years.

WHO IS THIS FUND FOR?

The Fund is suitable for investors who seek capital growth over the long term and want to invest in Canadian companies. Investors should have a minimum investment horizon of at least five years and be willing to accept medium investment risk.

Before you invest in any fund, you should consider how it fits with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

A WORD ABOUT TAX

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on the Fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the Fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold the Fund in a non-registered account, distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you receive them in cash or have them reinvested.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The following tables show the fees and expenses that you could pay to buy, own or sell Series A units of the Fund. There are other series available; however, the fees and expenses vary. Ask your advisor about which series may be suitable for you.

1. Sales charges

When you buy Series A units, you may pay a sales charge.

SALES CHARGE OPTION	WHAT YOU PAY		HOW IT WORKS
	in percent (%)	in dollars ($)
Front end	0% – 5%	$0 to $50 for each $1,000 investment	The initial sales charge is negotiable and paid to your advisor at the time of purchase and deducted from the amount you buy.

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns.

As of December 31, 2010, the Fund's expenses were 2.34% of its value. This amounts to $23 for every $1,000 invested.

Trailing commission

On a monthly basis, EdgePoint pays your dealer a trailing commission for as long as you own the Fund. The dealer may pay part of the trailing commission to your advisor for the financial services they provide to you. The commission is 1% of the average daily value of your units or $10 per $1,000 invested. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you sell or switch units of the Fund.

FEE	WHAT YOU PAY
Non-sufficient funds (NSF) cheque fee	A fee of $25 may be charged on NSF cheques.
Short-term trading fee	The Fund may charge you a short-term trading fee of up to 5% if you sell or switch units within 90 calendar days of purchasing them. The Fund deducts the fee from the value of the units you're selling or switching, subject to certain exceptions.
Switch fee	You may have to pay your dealer a switch fee of up to 2% of the net asset value of the units being switched. You can negotiate this fee with your dealer.
Wire transfer fee	A fee of $25 is charged on wire transactions.

WHAT IF I CHANGE MY MIND?

Securities legislation in some provinces and territories gives you the right to withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units within two business days of receiving the simplified prospectus, or to cancel your purchase within 48 hours of receiving confirmation of your order.

Securities legislation in some provinces and territories also gives you the right to cancel an agreement to buy mutual fund units and receive your money back or make a claim for damages if the simplified prospectus, annual information form or financial statements misrepresent any facts about the Fund. These rights must be exercised within the time limits set by the securities legislation in your province or territory.

For more information, refer to the securities legislation of your province or territory or consult your lawyer.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The following tables show the fees and expenses that you could pay to buy, own or sell Series B units of the Fund. There are other series available; however, the fees and expenses vary. Ask your advisor about which series may be suitable for you.

1. Sales charges

When you buy Series B units, you don't pay a sales charge at the time of purchase but you may have to pay a redemption fee when you redeem the units.

SALES CHARGE OPTION	WHAT YOU PAY		HOW IT WORKS
	in percent (%)	in dollars ($)
Low load	If you redeem:	%	$0 to $30 on every $1,000 you redeem
	Within 1st year	3.0
	2nd year	2.5
	3rd year	2.0
	Thereafter	0.0

When you buy the Fund, EdgePoint pays your dealer a commission of 2%. If you redeem units within three years of the purchase date, you pay a redemption fee that's charged as a percentage of the original cost of the units. The redemption fee is deducted from the amount you sell and is paid to EdgePoint. You may have to pay other fees when you sell or switch units of the Fund. See "Other fees" (below) for an explanation.

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns.

As of December 31, 2010, the Fund's expenses were 2.57% of its value. This amounts to $26 for every $1,000 invested.

Trailing commission

On a monthly basis, EdgePoint pays your dealer a trailing commission for the first three years following your purchase. The commission is 0.5% of the average daily value of your units or $5 per $1,000 invested. In year 4, your units are rolled into a different series of the Fund, which has a lower MER. The commission paid to your dealer increases to 1% or $10 per $1,000 invested. Dealers may pay part of the trailing commission to your advisor for the financial services they provide to you. The trailing commission is paid out of the management fee.

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you sell or switch units of the Fund.

Switch fee	You may have to pay your dealer a switch fee of up to 2% of the net asset value of the units being switched. You can negotiate this fee with your dealer. If you're switching from Series B units/Series B(N) units of one fund to Series B units/Series B(N) units of a different fund you don't have to pay the redemption fee, but you may have to pay a redemption fee when you sell the new units. We calculate the redemption fee based on the cost of the original Series B units/Series B(N) units and the date you bought the original Series B units/Series B(N) units.
Wire transfer fee	A fee of $25 is charged on wire transactions.

Table showing the percentage breakdown of the fund's investment mix across various sectors such as Energy (15.4%), Banks (15.0%), and Information Technology (12.3%).

HOW RISKY IS IT?

When you invest in a fund, the value of your investment can go down as well as up. EdgePoint has rated this Fund's risk as medium. For a description of specific risks, see the Fund's simplified prospectus.

ARE THERE ANY GUARANTEES?

Like most mutual funds, this Fund doesn't have any guarantees. You may not get back the money you invest.

HOW HAS THE FUND PERFORMED?

This section tells you how the Fund has performed since its inception. Returns are after fund expenses have been deducted. These expenses reduce the Fund's returns. It's important to note that this doesn't tell you how the Fund will perform in the future.

Average return

A person who invested $1,000 in the Fund at inception would have $1,960 as of May 31, 2011. This is equal to an annual compounded return of approximately 30.4%.

Year-by-year returns

This chart shows the Fund's annual performance for each of the years shown. The Fund hasn't dropped in value for the past two years.

WHO IS THIS FUND FOR?

The Fund is suitable for investors who seek capital growth over the long term and want to invest in Canadian companies. Investors should have a minimum investment horizon of at least five years and be willing to accept medium investment risk.

Before you invest in any fund, you should consider how it fits with your other investments and your tolerance for risk.

A WORD ABOUT TAX

In general, you'll have to pay income tax on any money you make on the Fund. How much you pay depends on the tax laws where you live and whether or not you hold the Fund in a registered plan, such as a Registered Retirement Savings Plan or a Tax-Free Savings Account.

Keep in mind that if you hold the Fund in a non-registered account, distributions are included in your taxable income, whether you receive them in cash or have them reinvested.

HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

Following are the fees and expenses that you could pay to buy, own or sell Series F units of the Fund. There are other series available; however, the fees and expenses vary. Ask your advisor about which series may be suitable for you.

1. Sales charges

You can buy Series F units only through dealers who have entered into a Series F agreement with EdgePoint. You don't pay a sales charge when you buy Series F units of the Fund.

2. Fund expenses

You don't pay these expenses directly. They affect you because they reduce the Fund's returns.

As of December 31, 2010, the Fund's expenses were 1.21% of its value. This amounts to $12 for every $1,000 invested.

Annual rate (as a % of the Fund's assets except as noted)

Management expense ratio (MER)	1.08%
This is the total of the Fund's management fee, operating expenses and HST. EdgePoint has waived some of the Fund's expenses. If it hadn't done so, the MER would have been 1.09%.
Trading expense ratio (TER)	0.13%
This is the Fund's investment trading costs.
Fund expenses	1.21%

3. Other fees

You may have to pay other fees when you sell or switch units of the Fund.

FEE	WHAT YOU PAY
Non-sufficient funds (NSF) cheque fee	A fee of $25 may be charged on NSF cheques.
Short-term trading fee	The Fund may charge you a short-term trading fee of up to 5% if you sell or switch units within 90 calendar days of purchasing them. The Fund deducts the fee from the value of the units you're selling or switching, subject to certain exceptions.
Switch fee	You may have to pay your dealer a switch fee of up to 2% of the net asset value of the units being switched. You can negotiate this fee with your dealer.
Wire transfer fee	A fee of $25 is charged on wire transactions.

WHAT IF I CHANGE MY MIND?

Securities legislation in some provinces and territories gives you the right to withdraw from an agreement to buy mutual fund units within two business days of receiving the simplified prospectus, or to cancel your purchase within 48 hours of receiving confirmation of your order.

Securities legislation in some provinces and territories also gives you the right to cancel an agreement to buy mutual fund units and receive your money back or make a claim for damages if the simplified prospectus, annual information form or financial statements misrepresent any facts about the Fund. These rights must be exercised within the time limits set by the securities legislation in your province or territory.

For more information, refer to the securities legislation of your province or territory or consult your lawyer.
